“ My deepest condolences to the family. I had the pleasure of working with Cheri at the Red Cross for over 30 years. We shared a lot of good times and some sad times through the years and I am so grateful for having known her and for all the memories.

“ Cheri and I worked on the mobile units at ARC for many years before she took the job as our scheduler at the main office. She was hard working and fun as well as very intelligent! She was part of a group of four of us Tiger fans to attend many opening days together, memories I will always treasure. Sadly after we all retired we kind of lost touch except at Christmas and birthday times! May our Lord hold her tenderly in His arms, no longer suffering or in pain 🙏 Gone ahead, never forgotten, Cheri! Anita Weber

“ Cheri was a hard,dedicated worker who arranged the schedules for Red Cross nursing staff. We had happy times and sad times together with many stories over the years. I have many fond memories of Cheri and enjoyed meeting up with her in Florida after retirement. I will keep Cheri and her family in my prayers.

“ Then Almitra spoke, saying, We would ask now of Death.

And he said:

“You would know the secret of death.

But how shall you find it unless you seek it in the heart of life?

The owl whose night-bound eyes are blind unto the day cannot unveil the mystery of light.

If you would indeed behold the spirit of death, open your heart wide unto the body of life.

For life and death are one, even as the river and the sea are one.

In the depth of your hopes and desires lies your silent knowledge of the beyond;
And like seeds dreaming beneath the snow your heart dreams of spring.

Trust the dreams, for in them is hidden the gate to eternity.

Your fear of death is but the trembling of the shepherd when he stands before the king whose hand is to be laid upon him in honour.

Is the shepherd not joyful beneath his trembling, that he shall wear the mark of the king?

Yet is he not more mindful of his trembling?

For what is it to die but to stand naked in the wind and to melt into the sun?

And what is it to cease breathing but to free the breath from its restless tides, that it may rise and expand and seek God unencumbered?

Only when you drink from the river of silence shall you indeed sing.

And when you have reached the mountain top, then you shall begin to climb.

And when the earth shall claim your limbs, then shall you truly dance.”
