“ Chuck and I were blessed to be a part of the family group with Cheryl and Cliff, Sean and Heather, the boys and Kathy. I have so many fond memories of watching my grandson with Cheryl and Kathys grandchildren—a group of little boys that are now all growing up. I will always remember the woman sitting around talking at the kitchen tables. I remember when Cheryl dressed in a bathrobe with curlers in her hair for Halloween. Every time I walk around in my robe and curlers I think I look like I am dressed for Halloween and that makes me laugh. Cheryl was very giving with the things she made, which were treasures then but more precious now. I have my fall candle out that she made and have kept the battery light on as we think of Cheryl. At Christmas when I pull out my oven mitts I will think of her again. I can sew but not at all like Cheryl! I told Cheryl about an Amish bowl holder at Thanksgiving last year and by Christmas she made them up for everyone in all different fabrics for a Christmas party. She was amazing. I will miss our couple lunch/dinner dates at Savory Grill and Shamrock. Our love to Cliff, Sean, Heather, the boys and Kathy. Cheryl was loved and will be greatly missed but I am so thankful for the memories we all have that keep her alive in our memories.

“ I didn't know Cheryl for long but she was one of the friendliest people I encountered in Block of the Month classes at Fabric Affair. Her cheerfulness and laughter are missed already. My prayers & sympathies to all her family and friends.

“ Cheryl and I sewed together at Fabric Affair. We would save each other seats. We were partners at workshops. I am heading home from our cabin and was going to call her. How shocked I was to read of her passing. Cliff, my heart goes out to you. Please know that your family is in my prayers.

“ So sorry to hear of her passing. I knew her from being my sewing partner at a Fabric Affair conference and then we became friends and did some fabric shopping together. We shared some of our projects with each other. She was a way better sewer than me and I appreciated all her advice. We liked to share about our grandchildren and she told me a lot about her grandchildren. I could see how much they meant to her. Please accept my condolences, she was a special lady.

“ We had a spot next to Cheryl and Cliff at Fort Trodd. I'll remember the many shopping trips to JoAnn's (her favorite store), going to dinner with the guys, and just hanging out with them. It wasn't the same this year without them being 'next door'. She will be missed. Prayers for the family.

“ She was a great lady who will be missed greatly!
When I heard she would not be at the campground this season, I cannot believe she will never be back with our camping family at the Fort!
Prayers for comfort for her family!
