“ Sorry to hear of Michelle passing. She was a joy to be around and will definitely be missed by many people. I pray that the family will find peace at this very trying time. I love you Debbie and hope you can find peace and divine guidance in this difficult time of extreme grief.

“ I have so many memories with Michelle. A lot of fun, a lot of laughs. She had so many friends. She was so outgoing, so easy to relate to, and wasn't quick to judge. I could tell Michelle anything. I'm going to miss her infectious laugh and long talks. Michelle had a heart of gold. If you were her friend, she would give you the shirt off of her own back if she could. When I was down on my luck, Michelle opened up her own home to me, offered me a room, rent free, for as long as I needed to get back on my feet. Both Michelle and Keith would not even take a dime from me. Those are truly special people. Michelle was a very special person. She had a way about her, she was so real, yet so funny and could always see the bright side of things. I will never ever forget you, Michelle.
Until we meet again, dear friend.
