“ Thank you for being you, I love you. Thank you for showing me some really awesome music and I know that all I have to do when I'm really missing you is turn it on and it will be like you're right there with me.

“ Uncle Stevie, I miss you so much and I wish I had more opportunities to have spent time with you. You loved me even when I was shy and afraid to talk, you made me feel welcomed and you understood that I loved just in my own way. I'll never forget how you always made me feel special whether it be the wonderful things you would say, or the birthday cards you would send that of course had a silly joke on the front, but that was you. You always had something funny to say and you always had a smile on your face. I'll never forget the funny/silly things you'd say that even now mom and I say them to make us laugh and smile in spite of the fact that we are really broken and upset about you being gone. You had so many beautiful qualities about you and I will always cherish them. I changed the cover of my phone to a picture of you and I, and oddly it makes me feel comforted like you're always there. I'll never forget the time you made dinner and I was shocked and in awe of how creative you were, and how you wanted to take me fishing with you, I really shouldve taken you up on that offer I bet we would've had a lot of fun; I'll always remember how caring you were for everyone, you would give the shirt off your back to anyone in need. Thank you for being such a wonderful man, you were the Bees knees, KT, CA ( I'll keep it pg but you know what I meant ) I hope you always keep a watch over me and don't be afraid to let me know you're there. I love you Uncle Stevie, Rest In Peace.

P.s. Take a look down on mom and I today were gonna go sit by the water and have a couple of drinks in your honor, we want you to hear all the amazing things we have to say about you and how much we do and will miss you.

“ Rest in peace Steve. I will miss you every day for the rest of my life. Just between you and me, she very well may have dropped me on my head. I love you but never told you enough. I'm sorry.
